Search (DellToGo), Quick Text Window (DellToGo) etc... The name of the application is a bit confusing in English because the verb "to go" in German is "fahren". So a verb "to go" in English is "to go for a ride". For example: "They are going for a ride at the water park". As for us, we can only see that "Au To Go" uses EXE file and that's all. It is true that the names of such executables can be tricky and misleading, but this EXE file wasn't created to scam anyone. Actually, you may use this EXE file for some purposes if you like it. Do you trust this EXE file?
